Triplett Panel Meter and Test Equipment Transition to Jewell Instruments' NH Facility Complete

Jewell Instruments is pleased to announce that the transition of the Sales and Operations functions of the Triplett Panel Meter and Test Equipment product lines into the Manchester, NH facility is complete.

This completes the integration of the Triplett acquisition into the Team Jewell family. All sales and operations will now flow through Jewell's established system. A designated customer service rep has been assigned to handle all transactions and communications for the Triplett Test Equipment line, while the Panel Meter line will be handled by the current, capable and experienced customer service team.

For Test Equipment customer service please contact TJ Paton at:
tjpaton@jewellinstruments.com.

For Panel Meter customer service please contact Kim LaMarche at:
