Triplett Test Equipment Line on Display at Upcoming Trade Shows

Jewell Instruments, LLC, will be attending a variety of trade shows and events throughout the US and Canada in the second half of 2008, displaying the Triplett line of Test Equipment.

The CEDIA EXPO, taking place September 4-7 at the Denver Convention Center in Denver, CO, Booth 784. CEDIA is the #1 show in the hot, profitable residential electronic systems industry: home theater, multi-room audio and video, lighting control, environmental control, home networking, home automation, residential information technology, security, and more. For more information, or to register for the show, go to <http://www.cedia.net/expo/>

October 22 and 23 will find us at the CANASA Central show in Toronto, ON Canada. CANASA is Canada's largest security industries trade show attracting hundreds of exhibitors and thousands of attendees from across N. America. For more information, go to:
